KEY MESSAGES 02/04/04

New Executive Officer for Burdekin Dry Tropics

The Chair of the Burdekin Dry Tropics Board, Kirk Smith, this week announced the appointment of Arwen Rickert to the position of Executive Officer as of Thursday 1 April 2004.

Big changes in the Taskforce communication team

Both Clinton Parker and Phoebe Kinley are moving on from the Taskforce communication team. Clinton has joined the Public Affairs unit as a media officer within the Department of Natural Resources, Mines and Energy, and Phoebe has taken on an appointment with a PR company and will be leaving in early April.

Shona Strachan has joined the team, and will take on the management of the Bugle, running the monthly regional groups teleconferences and the regional NRM communication working group.

Carl Glen remains in his communication and community engagement officer position and is currently working with regional bodies to develop business communication processes. Carl is keen to hear from any regional body that requires assistance in developing business communication processes including developing communication plans, internal communication systems, web sites and media training.

The new look communication team are looking forward to continuing to service your statewide communication needs in the future. Please contact Carl Glen at carl.glen@nrm.qld.gov.au or shona.strachan@nrm.qld.gov.au
