Grants program attracts 80 applications

Natural Resources and Mines' $100 000 community grants program has attracted 80 applications. Under the program, grants of up to $2500 are given to organisations to undertake projects that help raise community awareness of natural resource management. The applications will be assessed in the coming weeks and successful applicants will be notified by mail in the first week of February. The theme of this year's grants is "Bridging our communities – water for life". For more information, contact the grants coordinator on (07) 3239 3860.
